

Spring Break 2015

Human Rights and International Relations Tour

March 23-28, 2015

GRINNELL COLLEGE

The Rosenfield Program in public affairs, international relations, and human rights is partnering with Development and Alumni Relations and the Center for Careers, Life, and Service to offer students a New York City Human Rights and International Relations Tour during Spring Break 2015, March 23 - 28.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Application is available online at <https://jobs.grinnell.edu/postings/1060>

November 21 Applications due
December 12 Decisions announced
December 19 $250 student payments due* (non-refundable)

*Contact Sarah Purcell [purcellsj@grinnell.edu] if you need assistance with the $250 student fee.

All Grinnell College students are welcome to apply.

For instructions on using the application online form, please go to <http://www.grinnell.edu/sites/default/files/documents/PeopleAdmin%20Tutorial%202014.pdf>. If further assistance is needed with the application, please contact Nate Dobbels at x3204 or dobbelsn@grinnell.edu.

PURPOSE OF THE TOUR

The tour will introduce students to an array of organizations and professionals—many of whom are Grinnell graduates—who have devoted their work life to the areas of human rights and international relations. It will be an opportunity to build connections with other students as you apply classroom knowledge. There will be many opportunities for networking.

TRAVEL AND LODGING

We have booked flights through Southwest Airlines to depart from Des Moines on Monday, March 23 at 6 am scheduled to arrive in NYC at 12:20 pm. The return flight will depart from NYC on Saturday, March 28 at 7:20 pm and arrive in Des Moines at 11:20 pm. We will be staying at the Hampton Inn just a couple blocks from Times Square.

VISIT SITES

- United Nations
- New York Times
- Center for Constitutional Rights
- Council on Foreign Relations
- Human Rights Watch
- NYU Stern School of Business
(Center for Business & Human Rights)
- Episcopal Relief and Development
- Adhikaar

